Updated: As F1 races towards its annual calendar shake-up in 2021, a series of potential new F1 races are in the pipeline, and a new Grand Prix is currently set to debut in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. Speaking at a press conference last week, with his eye on the race calendar shake-up that will come into effect in 2021, F1 Commission chairman Chase Carey confirmed that the series is considering adding an extra race in the middle of the season. F1 is set to see four Grands Prix drop from its current 2020 calendar, with Russia, Austria and Great Britain set to be dropped in favour of a new race in Vietnam, while the Bahrain GP becomes the first Gulf State entry. Now, as Carey reveals that a race in Canada is also in the planning, he has revealed that a number of cities in North America are also in line for a potential F1 race, with a potential two-venue race in Atlanta and Charlotte set to be considered. "I think we're looking at the mid-season race, probably in North America," Carey told the F1 media conference last week. "But not necessarily Charlotte, but certainly the Southeast, Atlanta, or maybe Charlotte." Several F1 venues in the Southeast are on the radar, including Atlanta's new baseball stadium. "I love that idea," Carey stated. "It's a great place, a big ballpark. There would be a lot of interest in that." However, he emphasised that the plans to add a race in the middle of the season would require agreement from the commercial rights holder, who is yet to indicate its support to the plans. "We haven't announced anything yet, but we are exploring it," Carey said. "We are looking at it, and you know what, it depends on where we are in the schedule... I can't tell you that because of the commercial rights holder." Carey and F1 are set to meet with NASCAR this month to discuss their future. Carey revealed that the two parties haven't met this year to discuss F1 and NASCAR's future together, with Carey saying there are "further conversations and planning to do so in 2020". "We've talked. We're friends. And

Harvey Weinstein Slams Trump With Open, Racist Letter: 'I'm Just From the Bronx' The Project Runway host and Bravo executive compares Trumps' wall to Berlin's Berlin Wall to use as a symbol of America's divisions. Harvey Weinstein posted a letter Monday that slammed President Donald Trump, comparing him to Nazi dictator Adolf Hitler. The Project Runway host and Bravo executive on Friday compared Trump's infamous border wall to Hitler's Berlin wall to use as a symbol of America's divisions. "Those of us who live in the area were unable to escape," he wrote, according to a copy of the letter seen by The Hollywood Reporter. "I have a beautiful wife, seven children and three grandchildren. We were persecuted because of the heritage we decided to carry. If you will stand with me, we will make America great again." He told THR in another email that he shared the letter with friends on Monday afternoon and an attorney who has been handling a number of his legal matters. Weinstein says that he is "very upset" and "tired of being told that America has to be like it has been in the past." "It is time to vote for change and to vote for America's future," he said. "I'm not anti-immigrant or anti-religion. But what Trump has done is racist. This wall is hateful and frightening. His ignorance makes me very sad for my country and for our future." The letter also includes a reference to a shouting match Weinstein has had with the president's daughter Ivanka Trump, whom he says he confronted at a Washington, D.C., restaurant "on more than one occasion." "I told her the wall had bad intentions and others were saying so and urged her to read about it," he says in the letter. Weinstein made headlines earlier this month for throwing a tantrum at the YTL Suite in New York City after sipping a glass of red wine. The wine "makes me crazy!" Weinstein shouted. "I've lived this fucking country for 20 years. This is a free country. We can do what we want," he later said to THR. "It bothers me when people I pay money to work for me, who should be respectful of me as their employer, don't have any respect for me and act like they're adults." After a TMZ video showed Weinstein at the restaurant claiming he once paid off disgraced former President Bill Clinton,
