COFFEE

Single Origin Coffee from The Royal Project

Mae La Noi
Mae Hong Son plantation
Elevation : 1100-1300m
Full bodied, dark roast

Mae La Noi is one of the most scenic Royal Project plantations. It is blessed with the ideal climate and altitude for high-quality Arabica beans. Nestled in a valley between two mountains, enjoying cool breezes and a drizzling of tropical showers. This perfect combination allows the coffee cherries to slowly mellow and absorb the full nutrients of Northern Thailand's lush, rich soil.

Taste Characteristics

A strong, bitter and full-bodied coffee. Mae La Noi has a magnificent, strong aromatic sweetness, with a rich brown color in the cup. The beans have a unique intense, dark-chocolate aroma and rich body. The brew has a complex mild bitterness that finishes well with a strong caramel aftertaste, along with a gentle perfume of maple syrup.

Huay Nam Khun
Chiang Rai plantation
Elevation : 1100-1200m
Medium bodied, mild roast

Waterfalls surround the Huay Nam Khun Valley Highlands, providing a constant source of pure spring water. The climate is cool and misty, year-round; perfect for coffee cultivation. This allows the Arabica coffee beans to gradually develop their unique flavors of medium-body, clear-tasting coffee with a mild bitterness. Huay Nam Khun brings together a perfect Arabica coffee that has a mellow scent of fruitiness with a nutty overtone.

Taste Characteristics

Huay Nam Khun has an exquisite bouquet of roasted nuts, with a mild sweetness. This sweetness softly lingers and is followed by a delicate bitter finish-giving a distinct softness on the palate.

TEA

Boon Rawd Farm
Chiang Rai, Thailand

Boon Rawd Tea is grown in a special province in the northern part of Thailand, Chiang Rai. Cool and misty breezes consistently pass through Boon Rawd Farm's valley.

Boon Rawd blend in the custom of many generations of growers in the far North of Thailand. The freshness and purity of the tea come from the use of pure natural water sources and by careful hand picking of the whole leaves.

English Breakfast

This is a full-bodied tea that comes in a 'coppery' color with a gentle awakening to a fresh new day. As the name suggests, this tea is meant for an exhilarating start in the morning. With a touch of lemon, it's great for any time of day.

Jasmine Oolong

Jasmine is the flower known for its subtle sweet fragrance. When combined with Oolong tea, it yields a fascinating effect of an aromatic bouquet of flowers in the cup. A wonderful invigorating tea.

Matcha Japanese Blended Green Tea

A fine powdered Japanese Matcha green tea has been delicately blended with Boon Rawd Green Oolong leaves. Creating an exciting sharp bite followed by a lingering sweetness. A revitalizing tea which is high in antioxidants and fibre.

Peppermint Tea

This premium grade Peppermint tea is a very special, zero caffeine, zero sugar tea with a soothingly uplifting scent and a refreshingly cool taste.
